

HAIR DRESSERS IN HOT RACE.

WILD SCENES AT BRAID CONTEST.

By Gene Morgan.
CHICAGO, July 28.—The artist thought it was a hair-pulling marathon. It certainly looked that way as he gazed across the marcelled heads of sixty lady rooters and at the stunts on the platform.

Before a row of mirrors sat seven pretty girls. Above them towered an equal number of frantic women, who grabbed locks by the clawful and plunged barbarous combs into the tangled strands.

It was not a hair-pulling match. Those excited ones who seemed to be collecting material to stuff a mattress were artists in their line. Their line was hairdressing. A gold medal was to be awarded to the winner of the contest—the artist who could complete the most perfect and modish head dress in the shortest time.

The judges did not carry stop-watches and pistols. Nobody yelled "Soak the umpire!" But excitement was a-flying just the same. The lady rooters had their favorites among the contestants, who were the champions of seven leading merican cities.

They rooted with "ahs" and sighs. They rooted clear down to their hair roots.

While the contest was at its height one of the judges, a sad-looking man with jet black illacs around his face, held up his hand. This was a signal for the contest to pause. The artist thought it was the end of a round, and expected to see the seconds some forward with buckets and sponges.

"You are disqualified, madam!" cried the umpire, in hoarse accents to one of the lady contestants. "This model's hair has already been waxed underneath!"

(Intense excitement. Cries of "The horrid cat!")

FIGHT IS WAGING AROUND SHANGHAI

Rebels it is Claimed Are Training Their Guns on the Foreign Settlement in Revenge For Arrests.

SHANGHAI, July 29.—After two nights of quiet, firing was resumed here at 9 o'clock Monday night. Shells burst over the band stand in the foreign settlement and a Portuguese boy received mortal injuries and other foreigners had narrow escapes.

At this hour the fighting still continues. It is suspected that the rebels are deliberately training their guns on the foreign settlement in revenge for the Shanghai volunteers having disarmed 300 soldiers and 12 officers at Chapel Saturday.

Panic prevails among the Chinese, crowds of whom are flocking to the foreign settlement from the native city. All the boundaries of the settlement are constantly patrolled by foreign detachments.

NEW YORK, July 29.—Dr. Sun Yat Sen, who was the first provisional president of the Chinese republic, and led the revolution against Manchu rule, today called the following proclamation to the Associated Press:

"SHANGHAI, China, July 28.—When three months ago Yuan Shi Kai unconstitutionally concluded the loan with the bankers representing the five powers, almost immediately after the discovery of developments implicating the Chinese government in the murder of Gen. Sung Chiao-Jen, I appealed to the governments and peoples of Europe to withhold payment of the loan temporarily, knowing the Chinese people would denounce Yuan Shi Kai for the loan and for the murder and that Yuan Shi Kai would suppress their protest by force of arms.

"The present war would terminate as soon as Yuan Shi Kai retires from the presidency which he has disgraced.

"The powers, misinformed of the situation in China, have assisted Yuan Shi Kai with funds which has caused the present war."

LIMITED CRASHES INTO THE CAR AHEAD

Motorman on the Limited Fatally Hurt While a Dozen Others Are Injured.

FORTVILLE, Ind., July 29.—A limited train on the Union Traction company's lines, running late, crashed into the rear of the Marion flyer here this evening, resulting in the injury of the motorman of the limited and of a dozen or more passengers and the tying up of traffic for some time.

The motorman of the limited, Harrison, lives at Anderson. He sustained a badly crushed leg and is thought to have been internally injured. He was taken to a hospital in Indianapolis. Of the passengers on the limited a dozen or more were bruised and some were cut by flying glass. None was seriously hurt as to be unable to continue the journey.

The most seriously hurt was a little girl traveling alone, who sustained a severe scalp wound. She was too frightened to give her name before being sent on her way.

SAYS DUTY WAS CUT TO INJURE DOLLIVER

Sen. Kenyon in Tariff Debate Says Rate on Gypsum Was Put Low in Retaliation.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Protesting against the proposed reduction to 10 per cent. ad valorem of the tariff on gypsum, used in making fine grades of plaster and for fertilizer, Sen. Kenyon charged that the duty had been cut to the quick in the Payne-Aldrich bill by former Sen. Aldrich, chairman of the finance committee, in retaliation against the late Sen. Dolliver. Sen. Kenyon said many gypsum factories were located in Fort Dodge, the home of the late Iowa senator. Because Sen. Dolliver led a "gallant fight" against the schedule of wool in the Payne-Aldrich bill, he declared, Chairman Aldrich cut the duty to about 25 per cent.

Sen. Lodge was on his feet in an in-

No Cure No Pay

O. F. FLEENER, M. D., Expert Doctor for Men Only.

Not a Dollar Need Be Paid Unless Cured!

MEN—You have only one life to live. Why not live it in full enjoyment of vitality? To gain a cure is more important than all other earthly considerations. It means freedom from anxiety and suffering. It means a stronger hold upon life and broader field of opportunity. Many of my patients express regrets that every person who is afflicted does not know and understand what I can do for them—many regret that they did not sooner learn of my experiences over and over, telling why they were in doubt before they came to me, and how sorry they were that they did not sooner learn of my treatment, which was absolutely reliable. I am the only specialist in South Bend who makes no charge unless the patient is entirely satisfied with the result accomplished, and who give a written guarantee of not a cent to be paid for service if a complete and permanent cure is not effected.
